

MBTI® Complete

A simple, self-directed introduction to MBTI personality type.

All-in-one assessment and interpretation gets users to best-fit type faster.

Save time by using MBTI Complete as the first step in your development programs. Your respondents get to know themselves better through the self-directed assessment, online interpretation experience and best-fit type confirmation.

With MBTI Complete, your programs are:

Flexible

Users get to best-fit type on their own time and come to training with a foundation to build on.

Scalable

You achieve better organizational reach with web-based delivery.

More in-depth

When respondents start with best-fit type, you have more time to deliver deeper impact. In addition, they get lifetime access to a personalized online portal rich with tips for continued learning.

Product overview

Choose MBTI Complete through the Elevate platform. Respondents take the assessment, learn and verify their best-fit MBTI type, and receive a basic type description (PDF). They can access an online portal for further learning and come to your training already knowing the basics.

Each MBTI Complete administration includes the following:

MBTI assessment

Choose from the shorter Step I or more in-depth Step II assessments. Invite your respondents to take the assessment online when it's most convenient for them.

Interactive learning session

An introduction to the MBTI framework and core concepts to cement understanding and identify their best-fit type.

Results and reports

Your respondents get their own MBTI Type Description Report. You get a deeper Step I Profile detailing their results.

Personalized content portal

Decision-making tips, conflict management lessons, and more. People learn how to apply their personality insights in practical ways inside and outside of the workplace.
